Wernle's Golf Classic

Golf, Banquet and Auction

Hosted by Indiana Basketball
Legend Steve Alford

Hoosier basketball legend Steve Alford, the men's coach at New Mexico, will be the special guest for this year's Wernle Golf Classic. The native of New Castle played several times against Richmond High School before going onto a hall-of-fame career at Indiana University. New Mexico has won the last two titles in the Mountain West Conference, with Alford being selected coach of the year each time.

Alford has led the Lobos to 76 victories and a 74.5 percent winning percentage in three seasons. He has a 384-209 record in 19 seasons as a college head coach.

His all-time honors include being named Indiana's Mr. Basketball in 1983 after scoring 37.7 points per game in his senior season at New Castle. He has been inducted into the IU Hall of Fame, selected to the 15-member all-century team at IU and won a gold medal at the 1984 Summer Olympics. He was selected as No. 35 on a list compiled by Sporting News for the 100 greatest NCAA Division I players.
